

Mayor David Condon invites applicants for an opening on the Spokane Historic Landmarks Commission (SHLC). The vacancy is for a City-at-Large position in which the applicant must have a demonstrated interest or experience in historic preservation.

The 11-member SHLC makes recommendations to the City Council for landmark designation and reviews all proposed physical alterations to designated features of Spokane Historic Register properties.

The Commission is composed of two architects who are registered in the state of Washington; a state-certified general real estate appraiser; two historians with appropriate degrees or equivalent experience; a professional archaeologist or anthropologist with appropriate degrees; and an experienced preservation construction specialist. There are also two at large appointees from both Spokane County and the City of Spokane.

SHLC meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month at 3:00 p.m. Commission responsibilities require a commitment of approximately 3 -5 hours a month.

Interested applicants may be City of Spokane or Spokane County residents. Commission members serve without compensation. Those interested in being considered should send a letter of interest, resume and a completed City of Spokane Application For Committees/Boards/Commissions (available here) by November 27, 2016. Electronic submissions are preferred, if possible. Please email your letter, application and resume to: bcote@spokanecity.org.

To submit a paper copy, please address to: Brandy Cote, Office of the Mayor, Spokane City Hall, 808 W Spokane Falls Blvd, Spokane, WA 99201.

For more information, please call 509-625-6543 - Megan Duvall, City/County of Spokane Historic Preservation Officer.